Modern Language Reading Books of the North Carolina State List of Approved High School Textbooks

ALDRICH AND FOSTER: French Reader (first or second year).

A reader offering carefully graded material suitable to accompany or follow grammar work. Much of the matter is taken from French folklore.

LAZARE: Lectures Faciles pour les Commencants (first year).

Short anecdotes and narratives about familiar subjects couched in the simplest language, and pieces of modern French poetry for drill in pronunciation.

MARCIAL DORADO: España Pintoresca (first or second year).

Spain in story and legend. A collection of legends and descriptions, bits of art, history, and typically Spanish songs. Spanish and English exercises based on the text give practice in the use of the most common words and idioms.

Primeras Lecturas de Español (first year).

A reader containing narratives, anecdotes, simple poems, songs and plays dealing with life in Spain and South America. The style is simple but vivid.

HARRISON: Elementary Spanish Reader (New Edition)

A book of folk songs, anecdotes, fables, modern Spanish narrative, related in Spanish so simple that beginners can read them with ease and understanding.

Intermediate Spanish Reader

For the latter part of the first year or the early part of the second year. The selections are graded with especial care, and include excerpts from noted modern Spanish authors.
